How We Approach Philanthropy

Making Lives Better with Alorica (MLBA) is a non-profit organization led by Alorica employees to help those in need around the world. While most companies manage charitable giving from top-down, Alorica's approach to corporate giving is like none other—we empower our teams to guide our philanthropic efforts, enabling us to make the greatest impact for our employees, their loved ones and communities.

How We Empower Our People

Alorica employees lead their local chapters—from fundraising, screening grant applications, determining the contribution, issuing funds to reconciling their chapters' bank accounts.

1 | Alorica employees launch local MLBA chapters and raise funds for their communities.

2 | MLBA chapters decide whom to give to including:

How We've Made Lives Better

Medical Assistance

"Thanks to your donation and the support of angels like you, we can move forward with my son's surgery. His heart will begin to settle into its proper place, and his lungs will finally be able to breathe fully. Because of this, my son will have a much better quality of life. You truly are an angel from Alorica, and I am endlessly grateful to you."

Rodas Family - Guatemala Grant Recipient

Homelessness Prevention

"I was struggling to fix my septic tank and had spent every dime available to me. Thanks to MLBA covering my water and electricity bills, I was able to keep my home, provide for my children, and stay on top of my mortgage—without losing essential utilities. Your support made all the difference."

Tina Isler - U.S. Grant Recipient

Community Enrichment

"We deeply appreciate your generous contributions, which play a vital role in aiding victims of conjugal violence and families dealing with mental health crises. Your commitment to our cause is invaluable, and we hope for your continued support as we provide culturally sensitive, free services to our clients. Your collaboration with our center is immensely valued, and we look forward to strengthening our relationship in the future."

Humera Khan, President - Amal Center for Women Canada

Funeral Expenses

"When I lost my mother, MLBA stepped in during one of the hardest moments of my life, providing the financial support my family desperately needed. Their compassion meant the world to me. As an MLBA supporter, I'm forever grateful to be part of a community that creates a ripple effect of change and makes a difference in so many lives."

"It really brings tears to my eyes that this company has gone above and beyond for me and my family! We were affected by Hurricane Helene, and they were genuinely concerned about my and my family's well-being. They have been such a blessing to us. I am so thankful for them. They are truly nice, compassionate, and very consistent. If you are in need of assistance during hard times, they are the best to help out."
